

Terms and Conditions Governing the Availability of Mailing Lists/Labels from Headquarters

Electronic mailing lists may be furnished without charge to further organizational purposes of ARRL. These lists can be provided in Excel or text file formats. Mailing labels may be furnished at the cost of production. All label requests require pre-payment.

ARRL does not provide email address lists under any circumstances.

Upon request, mailing lists may be furnished for the following purposes:

Administrative lists are furnished to incumbent division directors and section managers for use in routine and administrative mailings to members in their respective geographical territories.

Convention and Hamfest lists are furnished to ARRL sanctioned events for promotional mailings of the event. They may not be used for any other purpose, including for campaign mailings during an ARRL election, and club outreach.

Election campaign lists are available to any candidate whose eligibility has been properly certified to campaign for an ARRL office.

Non-commercial lists may be furnished to any Full member of ARRL for any non-commercial purpose that is designed to further Amateur Radio and the purposes of ARRL. Such lists may be furnished up to the division level.

No mailing lists will be provided for commercial purposes in any form.

ARRL does not provide email address lists under any circumstances.

The request form has been designed to speed service to the user and guard against errors and misuse. Please only use the specific form. All requests must be made in writing; verbal requests will not be accepted. The Mailing List/Label Request Form can be requested from the Executive Office and found at www.arrl.org/affiliated-club-benefits under Mailing Lists.
